

Traveling in North Dakota

North Dakota Tourism and DOT's mobile Travel Information web page is intended for use with smartphones to view information that is relevant to the traveling public. The application allows you to access this information in both a map and text view. This web page is not to be used while driving.

<http://www.dot.nd.gov/travel-info-v2/travel-info-mobile.htm>
www.NDTourism.com

Speed Limit

75 miles per hour on interstate highways, except where otherwise posted around major cities. 65 miles per hour on all other primary and secondary highways, except where otherwise posted.

Statewide Road Report

Call 511, 1-866-MY ND or 1-866-696-3511

<http://www.dot.nd.gov/roadreport/roadreport/roadreportinfo.asp>

Emergency assistance

800-472-2121

Regulations for Interstate Buses

ICC Operating Authority Buses entering North Dakota must have ICC operating authority and be enrolled in the Single State Registrations System (SSRS) prior to entering the state.

Highway Use Permits

North Dakota is a member of the International Registration Plan (IRP). A $20 permit is required if not a member of IRP.

<http://www.nd.gov/ndhp/motor-carrier>

Motor Fuel Tax Requirements

A $15 permit must be purchased if not a member of the International Fuel Tax Agreement (IFTA)

www.dot.nd.gov