

Military/Aviation

From the frontier forts that provided refuge for wagon trains and barges to military bases offering safety and security for the skies.

Ronald Reagan Minuteman III Missile Site, Cooperstown, ND,
<http://history.nd.gov/historicsites/minutemanmissile/index.html>

Tours of Oscar Zero Missile Alert Facility and launch control center and the launch facility.

Minot Air Force Base, Minot, ND, www.minot.af.mil

5th Bomb Wing Public Affairs Office conducts tours. View website for appointment times and dates.

Grand Forks Air Force Base, Grand Forks, ND, www.grandforks.af.mil

Airbase tours available by appointment only. Visit website for more details.

John D. Odegaard Aerospace School, Grand Forks, ND, www.aero.und.edu

Tour includes flight simulators, air traffic control labs, and altitude chambers.

Fort Abercrombie State Historic Site, Abercrombie, ND,
<http://www.history.nd.gov/historicsites/abercrombie/index.html>

First military established to guard wagon trains and steamboat.

Fort Abraham Lincoln State Park, Mandan, ND, www.fortlincoln.com

Custer's 7th Cavalry was stationed here. Tours through the Custer home, barracks, commissary, granary and stables.

Fort Buford, Williston, ND, <http://www.history.nd.gov/historicsites/buford/index.html>

Established to provide escorts for wagon trains, steamboats, international boundary patrols and known for Sitting Bull's surrender and the Buffalo Soldiers of the 25th Infantry.

Fort Totten State Historic Site, Devils Lake, ND,
<http://www.history.nd.gov/historicsites/totten/index.html>

One of the best-preserved frontier military posts in the country. Used as military post until 1890 and then converted into a boarding school for Dakota Indian children.

Dakota Territory Air Museum, Minot, ND, www.dakotaterritoryairmuseum.com

This museum has military and civilian aircraft from 1928 through the present to show rich varied stories of aviation history.

Fargo Air Museum, Fargo, ND, www.fargoairmuseum.org

Historic flyable airplanes, including one of the four flying Japanese Zeros and P-51 Mustangs.