TOURISM DIVERSIFIES NORTH DAKOTA'S ECONOMY

Tourism links communities, supports main streets, sparks economic diversification and defines our image – how we see ourselves and how others see us. It is a significant economic driver.

The sector employs more than 42,000 North Dakota citizens. Residents in every community, large and small, rural and urban, benefit from visitor spending and tourism activities.

North Dakota's tourism sector comprises five industries: accommodations, food and beverage, recreation and entertainment, transportation and retail. From restaurants to museums, service stations to golf courses, tourism benefits every county of the state.

TOURISM IS AN EXPORT COMMODITY

North Dakota's visitor economy grows when more people travel to and within the state, and visitors interact more with a destination. Shopping, dining, purchasing transportation and lodging, buying event tickets, attending galleries, performances and sporting events and other activities all contribute to a stronger visitor economy.
